

EVANGELISM

PART 20- In God we Trust

Matthew 10: 9-10

E pluribus unum- Out of Many, One

“The historical, national motto has been seen as a way to strengthen the foundations of our freedom, serving as a constant reminder that the nation’s political and economic fortunes were tied to its spiritual faith, all beginning in the early years of the Civil War.”

As you have received without paying, give without pay

1. As God gives us good gifts, our focus should never be placed on the gift itself but always be directed to the giver of that gift
1. In order for us to be able to give freely, we have to first know what it is that we have received

(Where) v.5 These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans,

(Who) v.6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

(What) v.7 And proclaim as you go, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’

(How) v.8-14 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart. As you enter the house, greet it. And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town...

(Why) v.18&22 “...all for my name’s sake...”

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

Matthew 28 18-20

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

“Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

Matthew 21:9

Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.

Revelation 19:11

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

John 3:17

The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

2 Peter 3:9

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

Jesus looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the offering box, and he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. And he said, “Truly, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on.”

Luke 21:1-4

Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
and do not lean on your own understanding.
In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make straight your paths.

Proverbs 3: 5-6

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

How often do we allow God to work in and through our lives?

And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, “Look at us.” And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!” And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God, and recognized him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, asking for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts 3: 4-6

To what degree do we allow God to work in and through our lives?

Where is it that you find your security in?

Is my trust in the gifts that God has given me, in my things or skills he has blessed me with, or is my trust God and His character?

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:31

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him.

2 Timothy 2:4

The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the LORD tests hearts.

Proverbs 17: 3

Matthew 6: 19–21

“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Matthew 10:9-10

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food.

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Matthew 6:34

- Do not Lean on your own understanding but acknowledge the Lord in all your ways
- Finding our peace and security to be rooted in Him and not the gifts he has given
- Learning how to travel lightly in this world

Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.”

Matthew 7 24-27

“for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God. You hypocrites!

Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:

“This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”

Matthew 15: 7-9
